

Spanish Language Links and Teaching Resources

Grammar and vocabulary for GCSE and KS3

- The school is subscribed to: linguascope.com. Linguascope is the world's number 1 language learning for schools. username: camdengirl password: mfl@csg
- Languagesonline Engaging interactive tasks and printable worksheets that introduce, reinforce and recycle vocabulary. Activities are self-paced and self-correcting and include recordings by native speakers.
- memrise Learn a language with thousands of video clips of real native speakers, fun and effective games to practice your skills.
- Duolingo With a free mobile app or web and a few minutes a day, everyone can learn Spanish.
- Pearsons activelearn. A digital learning space for your pupils.
- BBC Languages have lots of high-quality Spanish material - aside from the BAFTA-winning Mi Vida Loca and other excellent interactive video courses, have a look at El mensual, an intermediate-level audio magazine which can be browsed by topic or language focus.
- Spanish Food Dictionary
- BBC Bitesize: lots of resources for GCSE practice on all topics for the AQA specification

Grammar and vocabulary for A level

- Instituto Cervantes exists to promote the Spanish language; their website includes plenty of material for students and teachers of Spanish, plus up-to-date information about cultural events. Our teachers particularly like Lecturas paso a paso (short stories with pre- and post reading exercises) and Pasatiempos de Rayuela (lexical, grammatical, sociocultural exercises).
- VeinteMundos magazine has interesting articles about the Spanish-speaking world, for intermediate & advanced learners. Each article has helpful integrated pop-up vocabulary and an audio reading which allows simultaneous reading and listening. There's also a section for teachers.
- Tecla is a magazine (including exercises) written for learners and teachers of Spanish, with a searchable subject index of past issues. It is produced monthly during term-time by the Spanish Embassy in the UK.
- El Camino de Santiago is another excellent video-based site by the same team at Cégep du Vieux Montréal, this time using the Camino de Santiago pilgrimage route to focus on ser, estar, en, a, por, para; identificación, definición, descripción, localización, desplazamiento, causa y finalidad. Woven in with the pilgrim interviews are 48 exercises at level A1-A2.
- Todo Claro offers more than 100 grammar, vocabulary, situation and cultural exercises at all levels. Also has a verb conjugator, though the old Comp-jugador is more comprehensive.
- The Spanish CALL Project has lots of exercises, grammar and links. See also Ejercicios de lengua española - a collection of on-line grammar exercises from Juan Ramón de Arana.
- Learn Spanish - a free online tutorial.

- BBC Languages have lots of high-quality Spanish materia. Have a look at El mensual, an intermediate-level audio magazine which can be browsed by topic or language focus.

Reference

- WordReference.com has the Concise Oxford Spanish Dictionary, alongside some from Espasa Calpe.
- Real Academia Española gives free access to one of the best (monolingual) Spanish dictionaries.
- diccionarios.com provides access to dictionaries from Vox, including their English<->Spanish offering.

Literature

- Biblioteca Virtual Miguel de Cervantes - a comprehensive virtual library for Hispanic Studies, offering electronic editions of thousands of works spanning many centuries. This is a very valuable tool for students of Spanish.
- Ciudad Seva is the website of author Luis López Nieves, which has a good collection of links for Spanish literature & language.
- Proyecto Sherezade has contemporary short stories in Spanish by authors from all over the world, plus vocabulary and grammar exercises, comprehension questions etc.

News & media online

- El Mundo is one of Spain's most popular newspapers, which also has La Revista on-line, its Sunday supplement with a good range of full-text articles.
- El País is another popular daily.
- El Periódico - Catalunyan daily paper (in Castillian).
- ABC Electrónico - right-leaning daily news from Spain.
- Latin American countries are also well-represented; see for example La Jornada from Mexico, Clarín from Argentina, El Tiempo from Colombia, El Mercurio from Chile and Puerto Rico's .
- Google Noticias España allows you to search and browse hundreds of continuously updated news sources.
- TVE Internacional television schedules - as seen in the Language Learning Centre.
- Canal Sur TV from Andalucía (for practice with that tricky Southern accent!)
- BBC Mundo is the Spanish-language website of the BBC World Service - lots of features to read and watch, plus a live feed